AUTHORITY FOR FINAL DISPOSITION
COLORADO DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH AND ENVIRONMENT

SAMPLE FORM

- It is unlawful for any person in charge of a burial place or crematory to permit burial or other disposition of a dead human body or fetus until a final disposition permit has been issued.

- A final disposition permit may be issued only upon registration of a completed death certificate.

- A final disposition permit is required for any type of disposition of a dead human body or fetus.

- This permit may be used for transporting by common carrier.

- All permits must be endorsed by the sexton, recorded in the sexton's register, and forwarded within five days of disposition to the local registrar or designee in the county where death occurred.

- This permit meets all the requirements of C.R.S. 12-54-307(2)(a)(I)(X).

- This permit does not supersede other legal requirements for burial or cremation on private property (meaning not an established cemetery or crematory), such as city/county ordinance, land use regulations, covenants, etc. The landowner and/or funeral director is responsible for determining if such requirements or restrictions exist, prior to final disposition.

This final disposition permit, when completed and bearing the required signature, constitutes authority for burial, interment, cremation, removal from the state, or other authorized disposition of the deceased named below, in accordance with Section 25-2-111 C.R.S. 1982. This permit must accompany the remains to their destination.
